

PARENT MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE ROLES

This procedure supports the Governance and Management Policy

New Lambton District OOSH aims to provide a quality centre ensuring that it operates according to the legal requirements of a managing body. The Management Committee will ensure that decisions are made in a proper way, according to the centre's constitution and in the best interests of the children and the service.

At our service, the best interests of the child are our first and foremost consideration in all decisions and actions.

We are committed to:

Prioritising children's safety, wellbeing, and dignity at all times

Ensuring children are at the centre of all decisions about programs, environments, and routines.

Making choices based on what is best for children, even when other priorities exist.

Creating a safe, inclusive, and supportive environment for every child.

This principle applies to all staff, volunteers, and decisions within our service, every day.

Procedure

- a. The management will ensure that the service is managed according to the funding bodies' requirements and that all relevant guidelines, acts, regulations and the constitution are adhered to.
- b. The management structure will be recorded with the duties clearly described.
- c. Members of the committee will consist of parent users of children currently enrolled in our service. Membership of the committee will be opened up to all parents using the service, parents will be actively encouraged to participate.
- d. Office bearers will be elected each year at the Annual General Meeting.
- e. All committee members will know the requirements regarding the role they have taken on and have a job description issued to them outlining their responsibilities with in their role along with a confidentiality clause that is to be signed upon acceptance of the role.
- f. Decisions about the overall operation of the centre will be made at the management committee level. Parents and staff will be kept informed about the committee's membership, meetings and decisions and have opportunities to have input into the management of the service.
- g. The Nominated Supervisor will attend meetings of management and present a written progress report regarding the running of the centre and will provide information to the committee to assist in making decisions.
- h. A staff member may attend a meeting to raise issues on behalf of the staff and to provide feedback to other staff on the committee's decisions.

Role of the committee

- a. The committee is responsible for the ongoing management of the centre. Primarily this involves legal, financial and employment responsibilities. The responsibility for the day-to-day operations of the centre however is delegated to the Nominated Supervisor.
- b. The committee meets in accordance with the constitution.
- c. General ongoing tasks of the committee include:
  - Ensuring the needs of the parents, children and staff are met.
  - Ensuring the smooth daily operation of the centre.
  - Communication of relevant issues.
  - Publicity and public relations.
  - Review of policies.
  - Planning.
  - Financial management and administration
  - Liaison and compliance with funding and licensing bodies.
  - Employment, supervision and direction of staff, ensuring appropriate industrial awards are adhered to.
  - Continued maintenance and repair of the building and equipment where appropriate and in accordance with the school.
  - Addressing ongoing issues as they arise.
- d. Nominated management members may gain access to the services records, etc but only in accordance with confidentiality guidelines and when necessary to fulfill their management responsibilities. Confidentiality will be maintained at all levels at all times.
- e. At least two of the five Executive Committee Members the Chairperson, Vice chairperson, Secretary, Treasurer and Public Officer will be bank signatories. (Two signatures will be required for each transaction). The Book-keeper will also be a signatory.
- f. The Management Committee will make and ratify all decisions pertaining to the management of the centre at quarterly meetings.
- g. Where appropriate, sub-committees will be formed to deal with other matters. These committees will present a written report to each ordinary Management Committee meeting. These sub-committees will have a maximum number of six, minimum of three.
- h. Special meetings can be called by any committee member/s. They must notify the secretary and the meeting be held as required, at a time suited to all parties. The notification must be in writing, stating the purpose of the meeting, and then signed by the Committee Member/s.

Management Legal Issues:

The management of the service must take responsibility for statutory requirements of operating a legally constituted body. Some of these follow.

- Incorporation
This establishes a legal entity separate from individual members of the association. This means that responsibility for breaches of law lie with the association rather than committee members individually.

- Taxation
Employers are required to withhold tax at prescribed rates to remit to the ATO and account for this monthly. GST records must be kept and reconciled quarterly in the Business Activity Statement.
- Insurance
Many different insurance policies should be considered. Some are compulsory, others simply good practice. Workers Compensation, Public Liability and Directors'/Officers' Liability are held by the Centre.
- Superannuation
All employees who are not contractors must have payments of the prescribed percentage of gross earnings paid by the organisation into an approved fund.
- Leases/Licences
Services using Department of Education's facilities negotiate their lease with the principal, who should work with the Community Use of Schools guidelines.
- Work Health and Safety
Systems must be in place to ensure the health, safety and welfare of all those in the workplace. It is a legal requirement to insure workers in case of work related injury or disease.
- Employment Practices

Staff employed in community based services are covered by the Children's services award 2010 (MA000120). Copies of the appropriate award should be readily available for all staff. Staff should be kept informed of any changes to their award and the flow-on effects to their own situation noted.
- Management delegates the responsibility to the Nominated Supervisor and Bookkeeper for keeping staff up to date regarding relevant legislation and any legislative changes.
- Relevant legislation and any legislative changes will be advertised to parents through termly newsletters and announced at re-enrolment.

Specific roles of each of the delegates are as follows.
